Re: MB Docket No. 16-274
File No. CSR-8925

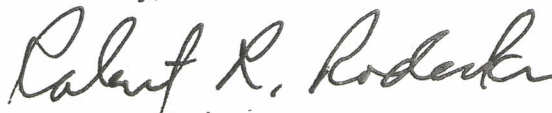

Request for Definitive Rule Regarding Pass-Thru by Suddenlink Communications of City of Charleston, West Virginia Municipal Business and Occupation Tax to Subscribers

Dear Mr. Lake:

As counsel to the City of Charleston, West Virginia, this is to inform you that the City is in receipt of the Opposition of Suddenlink Communications dated January 13, 2017, in the above-referenced matter. Further, this is to inform you that counsel for Suddenlink is correct in the statement found in Footnote 1 of Suddenlink's filing that Mr. Grigoraci's Petition was filed in his personal capacity and that, while the City may or may not agree with the contents of his Petition, the matter has not been addressed to the City Council and the filing of such Petition on behalf of the City of Charleston was not authorized by Council, the Mayor or the City Attorney.

If you should have any questions on this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me at your convenience.

Sincerely,

Robert R. Rodecker
